To the record, then, let us go. As the slavery question is the paramount issue in this canvass, let us first take up the record of Mr. Bell in reference to it, before proceeding to other matters. John Bell On Abolition Petitions. Up to the 23d Congress, Mr. Bell had been the firm friend and supporter of General Jackson. He represented the district in which General Jackson lived in Tennessee, and the General knew him well. Up to this time he had voted uniformly with his party against the agitation of the slavery question in Congress through the presentation of Abolition petitions. But after abandoning General Jackson, and contorting with the Abolitionists, Federalists, and disappointed Democrats, in order to reach the Speakers chair, all of which will be more fully explained hereafter,...
