(born WINBOLT.) OF HADLEY MONKEN. My dear Anne. If, as is most likely, you shall be surprised--and perhaps alarmed--at a Printed Address and the Dedication to you of a Book, a thing so entirely foreign to your retiring and unobtrusive-- tho far from inactive or unuseful life and habits, I hope you will forgive it, --on consideration of its being the only way in which I could, as is my desire, give you a something like permanent--and in a manner public --testimony of my great regard for you, tho I hope nothing was required to assure you of that. Moreover--an opportunity having been offered me herein of gratifying my old penchant by paying my respects to the Muse at the same time as to yourself, I really could not resist a temptation so powerful of killing two birds with...
