This bulletin therefore affords only an approximate indication of the numbers of convicted felons. In respect to color the convicts are divided as follows: --Of the 30,546 white convicts 23,094 are native born. A further analysis shows that the foreign population of the country constitutes, directly or indirectly, in the persons of the foreign born or their immediate descendants considerably more material for state prisons than the entire native population, the difference being represented by 1009. Of the penitentiary convicts 1791 are women, or less than 4 per cent as compared with 4.5 per cent in 1880. The states in which there has been both an absolute and relative decrease in the number of the convicts are Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Michigan, Alabama, Mississippi, Nevada, and Wyoming.
