

Hunting Alaska's Far Places: Half A Century With Rifle And Shotgun.

By Rearden, Jim.

Pictorial Histories Publishing, Missoula, 2008. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First Printing.. 240 pages. Softcover. New book. ALASKA. Join life-long hunter and one-time Alaska registered big game guide Jim Rearden as he roams the Alaska wilds with rifle and shotgun in this collection. Many detail his hunting experiences; others tell of other hunters' adventures. All (but one) of these stories appeared in Outdoor Life, Alaska Magazine, Field & Stream, Sports Afield, Hunting Horizons, Successful Hunter, Fur Fish & Game, and others. John Rearden and his hunting partner as they climb a Kenai Peninsula mountain, bag two mountain goats, and struggle down a dangerous and steep mountainside in a driving rainstorm on a black impenetrable night. Ride a galloping skiff on the rugged Bering Sea coast as two biologists harpoon white beluga whales for science. Hunt a secret Alaska Range valley as the author and his partner seek moose, caribou, grizzly bear, Ptarmigan, and grayling. These hunting adventures, and more, are included in this collection of twenty-two previously published stories written by one of Alaska's most popular writers. (Key Words: Jim Rearden, Hunting, Alaska, Grizzly Bears, Adventure Stories, Ptarmigan, Beluga Whales). book.
