.The new Rule 506 changes everything. The SEC has lifted an 80-year ban on general solicitation and start-ups and other Issuers for the first time can use public advertising to sell private offerings. Startups are now able to use advertising and general solicitations to fund private placements! The new Rule 506 may prove to be the answer to the prayers of startups frustrated with existing fund sourcing platforms. But it also has hidden dangers that will cause many issuers to continue to use the old Rule 506. Among the new Rule 506 strengths, observe: The amount that can be raised is unlimited There is no requirement for review of the offering under any Blue Sky laws (state securities regulations) There is no review of the offering by the SEC Solicitations can be online or offline Solicitations can be made to anyone! Sales (as opposed to solicitations) must be to accredited investors, and issuers must be able to verify that any actual investor is accredited. Also, proposed rules will require issuers to send the SEC all...

Reviews

An incredibly amazing ebook with perfect and lucid answers. It is written in basic terms and never difficult to understand. It's been written in an exceptionally basic way and it is only right after I finished reading this ebook in which it in fact modified me, affected the way I really believe.
